STARGAZER

CODE PEN-SGZ	DESIGNER Jeremy Pyles	DATE 2006	SERIES Silica Series
-----------------	--------------------------	--------------	-------------------------

The English dictionary defines stargazer as "a daydreamer, an impractical idealist" or "someone indifferent to the busy world".

We like that description as it fits us just fine and maybe it will describe you too.

We designed this light as a unique piece for some friends in Seattle, and since the project has taken a different direction, we thought we'd share this light with the world at large to quell our feelings of unrequited love.
