

Monina

The Joe collection has unusual origins. It derives from a painstaking artisanal process that rediscovers the softness of white body double firing and the prestige of lustre glazes, two clear references to the classical tradition of ceramics. However, the product also has a strongly contemporary side and is equally oriented towards modernity and anti-conformism.

Joe

