

Impeccable modern styling for the executive office is the essence of Tiper. Refined details and select materials enhance the sophisticated aesthetic created by renowned Italian designer Roberto Danesi. An abundance of combinations exist beginning with the choice of the strictly rectilinear panel leg or formed aluminum leg and support channel.

Rich wood finishes add warmth to bright aluminum accents and work surfaces of sleek glass available clear, painted black, or painted white.

Details such as protective black leather and wire management channels maintain Tiper's tasteful design while keeping offices neat and functional.

Dramatic compositions for private offices, conference and meeting areas are effortlessly created using contrasting materials and simple forms. Accompanying storage elements consist of open bookcases, mobile pedestals, and credenzas. Cupboards with etched glass fronts reveal contents inside for maximum efficiency.
