A voluptuous silhouette encourages the eye to roam the Pasadena Sofa, reveling in the canted back, smooth waterfall edges, and flushed joints of this harmonious design. Inspired by the curvilinear forms of modernism, each element is more sculpted than sawn to form an organic whole that is comfortable to sit in. Precise machine work enables us to cut joints that are attached to the seat so as to lie flush, leaving no visual interruption to impede the flow. Once assembled, the Pasadena Sofa takes hours of sanding by hand to finish. Our handstitched cushions can be upholstered in the fabric of your choice to finish the piece with an elegant, but inviting, tailored look.
