

HermanMiller Mora™ System

Designer

Colin Nourie

Caregiving is becoming as much about consulting as examining and treating. We designed Mora—a versatile casework solution—to furnish spaces across a facility so the focus stays on the people involved. Functionally, Mora provides intuitive ways to organize technology and supplies in support of natural human interactions. Its form—clean lines, thoughtful features, and the capability to custom fit your specific space—makes Mora right for your needs.
