INSPIRED. INSPIRING.

Art Media is a library of patterns reinterpreting iconoclastic modern art techniques and media: Drip Painting, Action Painting, Charcoal, Chalk, Graphite, and the optical illusions of Op Art. Exploring the boundaries of Art Media and Media Art, the floor plane becomes a canvas for larger-than-life installation art or fine detail that feels like an intimate secret through the use of advanced digital technology.

Designed by Cresta Bledsoe, Art Media consists of 6 patterns that offer a variety of quintessential modern art aesthetics in a range of scales that are completely versatile—from large focal point installation to neutral and planar, textural ground.

Each art technique was originally used to have a response to the canvas in a different manner—simplified forms of abstraction, fluid continuous lines, no defined positive or negative space, and playing with the figure-ground relationship. Here we treat the floor plane as a giant canvas where installation size has no limitation, allowing the viewer to respond to 'space' in a new and different manner.

9-tile random repeat

Random Layout

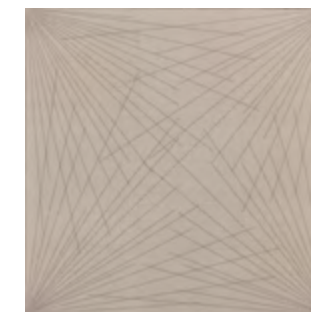

Op Art is a multi-tile repeat. Each tile has edge-to-edge pattern match with unique tile centers. The variety in this design makes each installation one-of-a-kind without additional floor plans or special installation instructions. This design is to be installed random monolithic from the delivery container.
