Op Art in Warp, monolithic tile installation

Art Media

Art Media is a library of patterns reinterpreting iconoclastic modern art techniques and media: Drip Painting, Action Painting, Charcoal, Chalk, Graphite, and the optical illusions of Op Art. Exploring the boundaries of Art Media and Media Art, the floor plane becomes a canvas for larger-than-life installation art or fine detail that feels like an intimate secret through the use of advanced digital technology.

Designed by Cresta Bledsoe, Art Media consists of 6 patterns that offer a variety of quintessential modern art aesthetics in a range of scales that are completely versatile—from large focal point installation to neutral and planar, textural ground. The optional canvas accessory patterns can act as a border or a transition.
