

Divina Lounge Collection
Piero Lissoni

DIVINA® LOUNGE COLLECTION Clean lines and exceptional comfort characterize the Divina lounge collection from Italy's Piero Lissoni. Soft and inviting, Divina appears to float in mid-air, with razor-thin legs supporting the chrome-plated steel frame. Cushions lie flush on a the frame with generous armrests that fully enclose each side of the lounge. The collection features a lounge chair in standard and "piccolo" versions, as well as a settee and sofa. Divina's elegant and classic lines, combined with comfort, are ideal for any contract or residential application. An optional side cushion as well as a choice of standard or softer dual density foam is available.

PIERO LISSONI After receiving his degree in architecture form the Milan Polytecnic, Piero Lissoni worked as a furniture designer before founding his own studio in 1986, specializing in architecture, interior and graphic design. He has collaborated with Boffi Cucine, Living Divani, Mateograssi and Kartell, and worked on a number of architecture projects in Japan, with design projects that have included a shopping center, an art gallery, a Cordon Bleu cooking school, logos and trademarks. His awards include the 1991 Esprit kitchen design and the Compasso d'Oro design prize. He has also received the Chicago Athenaeum 2002 Good Design® Award for this collection.

BKS188R2 © 2005 Knoll, Inc.

