ovation/bravo

A freestanding modular system designed with the vision of complete office functionality. Combining intelligent space planning with the warmth of wood or the durability of laminate, forming a symbiotic relationship between function and performance.

executive

Classically styled double pedestal desks and full height overhead storage. Gracious bow fronts allow meetings to occur spontaneously. Vertical towers allow for personal individualization of space and continued customization. Credenzas with coordinating storage units allow functionality without sacrificing beauty. Reserved elegance in design makes the selection of ovation/bravo a timeless statement.

management

Individual stations within a collaborative central environment. Storage and work surfaces to fit the needs of each user. Desks that have writing slides. File management at your fingertips. Wire management to route cords to your desktop equipment, as well as to external power sources. Organizational tools, spacious computer corners and variable storage and modesty options.

Functionality and quality work hand-in-hand. Mitred corners on hand-finished wood tops, reinforced chassis construction and catalyzed varnish ensure the life of your furniture investment.
